

Town of Brunswick

Social Media Terms of Use

The Town of Brunswick uses social media platforms to share information, engage with residents, and promote transparency in local government. We welcome your comments, questions, and participation. To maintain a respectful and informative online community, we ask that all users follow these Terms of Use.

General Guidelines

By engaging with our social media pages, you agree to the following:

- Be respectful of others. Personal attacks, threats, or abusive language will not be tolerated.
- Keep it clean. Comments that include obscene, discriminatory, or sexually explicit content will be hidden.
- Stay on topic. Comments should relate to the topic of the post or the business of the Town.
- No spam. Repetitive posts, commercial promotions, or links to unrelated content are not permitted.
- Protect privacy. Do not post personal information (such as addresses, phone numbers, or email addresses) of yourself or others.

Moderation Policy

The Town of Brunswick reserves the right to hide comments or posts that violate these guidelines. Repeated violations may result in the user being blocked from our social media pages. All comments and messages posted to the Town of Brunswick social media accounts are public records and may be subject to the Freedom of Access Act (FOAA).

Platform-Specific Disclaimers

The Town of Brunswick does not endorse any content, advertisements, or entities shared by social media platforms outside of official municipal posts. Follows, shares, or likes do not constitute endorsement. Social media sites are not to be used for making any official communications to the Town, for example: reporting crimes or misconduct, reporting dangerous conditions, giving notice required by statute, ordinance or regulation (e.g. notice of claim), etc.

Contact Us

For official communication with the Town, please use our website or contact Town Hall directly. Social media is not monitored 24/7 and should not be used to report emergencies or time-sensitive issues. Thank you for helping us keep this space respectful and informative for all members of our community.